A printable flashcard deck for living in Cuernavaca — the market, the ruta, the taquería, and your colonia. Mexican Spanish, as you will actually hear it.

FOR

Benjamin — living and learning in Cuernavaca. No textbook dialogues, only phrases you can use today.

HOW IT SOUNDS

Each card has a simple pronunciation guide. Say it out loud once, then use it outside.

HOW TO PRINT

Print double-sided for flashcards, or keep as a phrasebook. Last pages are cut-out cards.

HOW TO USE THIS DECK

Learn 15 minutes a day, use it the same day in Cuerna

You do not need perfect grammar to be understood and liked in Cuernavaca. You need 100 phrases you can say without thinking, plus the kindness to try. This deck is ordered by real life — not by grammar chapters.

1. Say it out loud

Spanish is phonetic. The pronunciation under each phrase is how it sounds. A = ah, E = eh, I = ee, O = oh, U = oo. Stress the part in CAPS.

2. Learn in sets of 10

One category per day. Monday greetings, Tuesday market, Wednesday food. Carry 5 cards in your pocket.

3. Use one phrase outside

That is the whole homework. Buy jitomates with phrase 37. Greet a neighbor with 81. Real use locks it in.

4. Cut the last pages

Print pages 14–15, cut on dashed lines, Spanish on front, English on back. Shuffle while you wait for the ruta.

Pronunciation — 5 vowels, always the same

A	E	I	O	U
ah	eh	ee	oh	oo
as in casa	as in mesa	as in sí	as in hola	as in tú

Three Mexico notes

Usted vs tú: Use usted with elders and officials, tú with friends and younger people. When in doubt, start with usted — it is respect, not distance.

Ahorita / al rato: Time is relational here. Ahorita can mean now, in 5 minutes, or later today. Smile and clarify gently: ¿Ahorita ahorita?

Jitomate, camión, ruta: In central Mexico a red tomato is jitomate, a bus is often a ruta or camión, and qué padre means how cool. This deck uses those local words.

YOUR FIRST WEEK

A 7-day start that actually sticks

Do not try to learn 100 at once. Learn the ones you will say before lunch.

DAY	LEARN	USE OUTSIDE
Day 1	1–10 Greetings	Buenos días at a café, Hasta luego leaving.
Day 2	11–20 About you	Vivo en Cuernavaca + Estoy aprendiendo español.
Day 3	31–40 Market	Buy fruit with ¿Cuánto cuesta? and un kilo de…
Day 4	41–50 Food	Order tacos with Quisiera… Sin picante.
Day 5	21–30 Getting around	Ask ¿Cómo llego a…? or take a ruta to centro.
Day 6	61–70 Time & weather + 91–100 Polite	Small talk: Hace buen tiempo. Nos vemos al rato.
Day 7	71–90 Help & neighbors	Walk to farmacia, greet vecinos. Review all cards shuffled.

When you get stuck

Use these three in order:
1. No entiendo.
2. ¿Puedes repetir, más despacio?
3. ¿Cómo se dice…? and point.
People in Cuernavaca are patient with learners who try.

What to learn next

After this deck: numbers 1–100, days of week, and 20 verbs (quiero, necesito, voy, tengo, puedo). Tell Biff "next deck" and it will build Deck 2 for you.

A note on respect

In Mexico, greeting before asking is not extra — it is the ask. Walk into a shop and say Buenas tardes before ¿Cuánto cuesta? Leave with Muchas gracias, que tenga buen día. That politeness will do more for your Spanish than any grammar rule this month.
